Per _____

1. It is the mark of an educated mind to be able to entertain a thought without accepting it.

---

2. Those that know, do. Those that understand, teach.

---

3. Excellence is an art won by training and habituation. We do not act rightly because we have virtue or excellence, but we rather have those because we have acted rightly. We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit.

---

4. Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all.

---

5. Courage is the first of human qualities because it is the quality which guarantees the others.

---

6. Education is an ornament in prosperity and a refuge in adversity.

---

7. The generality of men are naturally apt to be swayed by fear rather than reverence, and to refrain from evil rather because of the punishment that it brings than because of its own foulness.

---

8. The greatest virtues are those which are most useful to other persons.

---

9. Anybody can become angry - that is easy, but to be angry with the right person and to the right degree and at the right time and for the right purpose, and in the right way - that is not within everybody's power and is not easy.
